

Believe it or not Mr Chairman the american people are watching. Don't think for a second that the upcoming war with Iraq means that the people are not watching. To change this decision now would effect the economy of small Businesses and Towns across America. We the American People ARE watching, for you to make the right decision and not line your pockets with SBC money and sell out America's small business...